NEAR TO A WOMAN'S HEART IS HER

CORSET!

THE

Possesses all the properties of the best Corset made, and are recognized everywhere as being pre-eminently the most popular as to elegance of fit and comfort.

Extra long waist; heavy Jean, with

Sateen strips, extra stay on hip, two steels on each side. Unequalled. For 75c.

For 50c.

Extra long waist, Coutille, with Sateen strips, two steels on each side, silkflossed top and bottom. White and Black. Can't be beat.

For $1.00.

Extra long waist, six hooks, Coutille with Sateen strips, silk-flossed top and

A SUPERIOR $1.00 CORSET.

Extra long waist, fine Sateen, soft and pliable, two side steels on each side, silk-flossed top and bottom, finished with Silk Embroidery. The best on the

For $1.25!

NATURE HAS NOT CIVEN

To every woman a long waist, which is a desirable feature in a good figure. The R & G Corset will give the long waist appearance with perfect ease.

R & G CORSETS

Are as represented, made on the correct model, retaining the shape until completely worn out.

They are soft and pliable, conforming to each curve of the

They are returnable if not all we claim for them. There-

TRY THE R & G CORSET.

Yours truly,

Brown, Osborne &

Saderson Intelligencer.

LOCAL NEWS

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 11, 1895.

The Cotton Market. Corrected by Brown, Osborne & Co.

The horse and mule dealers are doing

Christmas presents are a popular topic now for conversation. Mr J. A. Mette, representing the Columbia Register, is in the city.

Mr. Geo. H. Evans, of Independence

The gay and festive turkey is on the market now for the Christmas holidays. Mr. Elias Day, of Easley, was in the city yesterday and gave us an appreciated

Mrs. M A Dean is spending several days in Walhalla with her sister, Mrs. N. L. Fant.

Mrs. T W Kirkland, of Savannah, Ga., is in the city visiting the family of Col. J. W. Trowbridge.

Mr. A. W. Anderson, the energetic Superintendent of the P. R & W. C. R. R., was in the city Monday.

The County Auditor has an important notice in another column to the taxpayers, who should read it carefully. Now is the time to draw away the dirt from fruit trees and destroy borers, if you want healthy, long-lived trees.

A number of Andersonians are contemplating a trip to the Atlanta Exposition during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. J. C Boggs, of the Slabtown section, has sold her property and will go to Texas to live with some of her relatives. The new advertisement of the Yates Shoe Co will interest you if you are con-templating buying winter shoes. Read it.

There is great danger now of getting stack on some of the sidewalks of the city. A little sand or coal cindars would benefit

The boys around town do a thriving business in dispensary bottles, which they collect in the back lots and sell to the dis-

Mr. Wm. Hand, of Hopewell Township, killed a nine months old pig last week that weighed 306 pounds net. Who can beat this?

For a corset go to Brown, Osborne & Co's. They are making a big run on the celebrated R & G corsets. Read their ad-

Hartwell (Ga.) Sun: "Three clever young gentlemen, Messra, Smith, Lee and Divver, rode over from Anderson, S. C., last Sunday on their wheels."

Mr. Reid Kay, who has been assistant depot agent at Walhalla for some time, has been appointed agent for the Blue Ridge Railroad in this city.

Don't forget that Hons. Bob. and Alf. Taylor will appear in the Opera House to-morrow night. Beserved seats now on sale at Russell & Breazeale's.

In a letter from the Comptroller General, County Treasurer Payne is informed posi-tively that there will be no extension of the time for paying taxes this year.

Walhalla Courier: "Mrs. T. A. Ratliffe, of Anderson, is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. L. Fant. of West Union. Her many friends are delighted to meet her again." Henry Lewis, a negro convict, esceped from the County stookade last Thur-day He was followed to his old home in Greenville County and captured Friday night.

The Constitutional Convention raised the limit for paying poll taxes from 50 to 60 years, but all Confederate veterans over 50 years of age are exempt from the tax. Married, on Sunday, December 8, 1895.

by J. H. Rainey, Esq., and at his residence. Mr. W. A. Mouchet, of Starr, S. C., and Mi-s Callie P. Adams, of Hart County, Ga. Owing to the outbreak of measles among the Cadete, Clemson College was forced to close lest week, which is two weeks earlier the usual date for the winter vaca We are requested to announce that Rev. T. J. Clyde will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church next Sunday morning and evening, at the usual hour for holding "Old Aunt Lydia Montgomery," colored, died at her home near Easley last Friday, at the ripe old age of 109 years. She was perhaps the oldest person in this section of the State.

The Intelligencer wishes to thank its correspondents for all past services, and to express the hope that the ensuing year will see an increase in our corps of news

In ordering the address of your paper changed always give the name of your present postoffice as well as the name of the office to which you want the address

Mr. N. B. Sullivan has purchased the lot opposite the home of his brother, Mr. J. M. Sullivan, on Hampton street, and in the early spring will erect a handsome For the next two weeks J. S. Fowler wants to sell one hundred buggies, pho tons and carriages, which he is offering at greatly reduced prices for the cash Read his advertisement and give him a call.

We invite your attention to the new advertisement of J. A. Austin & Co. Their store is full of good things and their prices are very low. Give them a call and you will have no trouble laying in your supplies for Christmas. Mr. E. G. Rose tendered his resignation as Chief of Police last Saturday. He was an efficient officer and his resignation sur-prised everybody Officer Dillingham has been appointed to act as Chief until Mr. Rose's successor is elected.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Todd celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage last Monday Despite the bad weather many of the friends of the venerable couple called at their home to pay their respects and ex-

Rev. H. T. Smith, the pastor, requests us to announce that Rev. H. B. Fant will fill his appointment at Neal's Creek Church on the tourth Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. Mercer King is expected to preach there on Saturday preceding.

Rev. H. T Smith, who has been living in this County for the past two years or more, has decided to move back to his native home, Dublin, Ga. He has made many warm friends in our County, and all of them regret to see him leave.

The clerks in the city are wondering now how many holidays the merchants are going to give them Christmas week. They have worked hard since the busy season wet in, and it has been suggested that the merchants give them four days.

The Central correspondent of the Pickens Sentinel says: 'Mr. John Werner and Miss Jenuie Nicholson, of Auderson, were married at the Methodist parsonage at Pendleton on last Wednesday. They are now at the home of the groom's parents at George Hammet, a rock mason, who lived at Piedmont and was well known in the upper section of this County, was accidentally killed by the falling of a derrick at Clifton. S. C., last Thursday. His body was brought to Picdmont and buried last Saturday.

Wanted—No better flour than Dean's Patent, bought of Dean, Ratliffe & Co., be fore the advance in price on flour, though they have not advanced prices on their flour yet. A fortune is in store for the man who reads their new ad this week man who reads their new ad this week

Mr. Edward Goldsmith died at his home at Piedmont last Friday after an illness of three weeks from typhoid fever, aged 24 plant of that city. Mr. Whitner was an

Inthere will be preaching at Varennes by the pastor, Rev J. A. Wilson, on next (3rd) Sabbath, and again on the 4th Sabbath. The appointment for the 5th Sabbath is recalled. Preaching at Flat Rock Presbyterian Church on the 4th Sabbath

An exchange publishes the following touching and suggestive poetry: "How dear to our bearts is cash on subscription, when the generous subscriber presents to view; but the man who don't pay-w refrain from description, for perhaps gentle reader, the man may be you."

That man Minor, the genial and clever boss of the Ten Cent Store, is prepared for the Christmas trade, as you will see by reading his new advertisement. On Christ mas Eve night he will give a free show at

Prof. Hicks, the weather prognosticator of St. Louis, predicts that the month of January will be a swinger for cold, and advises people, even in the South, to 'provide bountfully against a severe winter and great cold" This is good advice, whether the severe weather and great cold thread. Their new advertisement will ap pear next week. Our young friend, Luther Smith, of Brusby Creek, gave us a pleasant call Monday morning He was on his way home from a visit to the lower section of the County, where, we suspect, there is great attraction for him. He is a most clever young man, and no doubt would make a model husband. In their new advertisement this week Russell & Breszeale call attention to their fine stock of Christmas goods, which they are offering at very low prices. To the person who buys the most 5 cent cigars from them between now and to morrow night they will give a free ticket to Bob and Alf Taylor's lecture.

Cards have been issued to the marriage of Miss Sara Kennedy, of Due West to Jno K. Hood, Esq., of this city, which will take place next Tuesday morning, at The couple will leave immediately after the ceremony for Bartow. Fla. where they will spend two or three weeks visiting Mr.

Hood's parents. Last Wednesday night, after the arrival satin bag, with leather bottom, was los between the depot and the corner of North Main and Greenville streets. It contained a pocket book with some money and jewelry, a pair of spectacles, a handkerchief, etc. By leaving the bag and contents at this office the finder will be suitably re-

Mrs C E. Horton, of Williamston, has returned home from Baltimore where she underwent at the Johns Hopkins hospital an operation upon her face, advised by surgeons for the removal of a threatened cancer. The operation is successful and Mrs. Horton's early restoration to health seems probable, much to the pleasure of ter many warm friends here and in Wil

The Greenville News of last Saturday The Greenville News of last Saturday says: "The dispensary constables yesterday attempted to descend upon a five gallon keg of whiskey imported "for personal use" by a good old lady of Belton. The raiders struck a snag The old lady positively refused to allow her liquor to be touched by any profane hands. There was much contention, but the constables finally retired biuffed and baffled, having the fear of Judge Simonton before their eyes and the apprehension of feminine eyes and the apprehension of feminine wrath in their hearts."

Johnnie, the 4 year old son of Rev. W. B. Hawkins, died at his home in Hopewell Township last Thursday night, after an illness of two or three weeks with fever. The remains were brought to this city Friday afternoon and interrred in Silver Brook Cemetery, after appropriate funeral services conducted by Rev. O. L. Martin in the Baptist Church. The devoted parents are sorely bereaved in parting with their little one, but they have the consolation of knowing that he is now "resting in the arms of the Saviour."

The Westminister correspondent of th Walhalla Courier says: "The Baptiste have called Rev D. Weston Hiott. from the lower part of the State, to the pastorate of their church to succeed Rev. W. W. Leathers, who resigned some months ago.
It is probable that he will accept. Mr. Hiott preached his trial sermon last Sun-day and was listened to by a full house. His sermon was simple, earnest and effec-tive." Mr. Hiott's many friends in An-derson County will be delighted to know that he is going to return to the up country

Married, on Tuesday. December 3, 1895 Married, on Idesay, Describer, 1808, at the home of the bride's father, near Nashville, Tenn, Mr. Percy Sharpe, for merly of this city, but who is now engaged in business in Nashville, and Miss Julia Nichol. Shortly after the marriage the happy couple boarded the cars for Atlanta, happy couple boarded the cars for Atlants, where they spent two or three days view ing the Exposition, and then came on to Anderson to spend this week with Mr Sharpe's parents. Mr. Sharpe is being warmly congratulated by all of his old companions, and we join them in wishing he and his charming bride a happy and prosperous journey through life.

The Honea Path Chronicle of last week contained the following announcement of the death of a well known citizens of Anderson County: "After several months of intense suffering Mr. J. J. Mattison Sr assed quietly away lest Saturday morning. Mr Mattison was well known and respected by all our people, having lived in this section all his life. He was 69 years old, and was a consistent member of Shady Grove Church. Mr. Mattison realized tha death was near, and yet, he had no fear as his trust was in Him who 'doeth all things well." He was buried at this place on Sunday afternoon, Rev R. W. Burts con lucting the funeral services."

A fellow from the mountains went into a certain store the other day and asked the proprietor if he wanted to buy some nice dried fruit The merchant told him that he would ask his wife if she needed any. So he stepped to the telephone, called up his wife, and talked to her a few secondthrough the 'phone, then turning to the mountaineer, who was standing with his hands in his pockets, his eyes stretched and his face very red, told him that his wife said she did not need any dried fruir. The indignant mountaineer blurted out: 'Look here, mister, if you didn't want any fruit why didn't you say so! I ain't such a dad burned fool as to think that you've got your wife shet up in that little box 'And turning he walked out, leaving the merchant speech!eas

Anderson County has lost another good citizen in the death of Mr Willis C. Pruitt, which occurred at his home in Martin Township last Thursday, aged 65 years He had been in feeble health for a long time, and the announcement of his death was no shock to his neighbors and near relatives. Mr. Pruitt was a most worthy upright citizen, and was most highly esupright citizen, and was most nightly esteemed by a wide circle of friends He was born and reared in Anderson County and spent his life here. He had the reputation of being one of the most industrious farmers in the County. He had long been a devoted member of the Presbyterian Church He leaves a widow and several sons and daughters to cherish his memory. The remains were interred in the Ebenezer Churchyard last Friday.

A telegram was received in the city Monday morning bringing the sad announce-ment of the death of Mr Hugh Whitner, which occurred in Elberton, Ga., on Sunwhich occurred in Einerton, Ga., on Sunday night at 11 o'clock, after an illness of two or three weeks with typhoid fever. The deceased was in the 22nd year of his age, and was the youngest son of M-j B. Whitner, of this city. He had been living in E berton for several months, believe the Supering of the algebras.

years. He was an upright, industrious young man, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. His wife and one child survive him.

plant of that city. Mr. whither was an exemplary young man, modest in his disposition, possessed of strong character and firm integrity, and was most highly esteemed by all of his friends and acquaintenance.

NOTICE. — To those indebted to me please make payment at once, especially position, possessed of strong character and firm integrity, and was most highly esteemed by all of his friends and acquaintenance.

I must have my money. J. S. Fowler. child survive him.

The Columbia Register of Saturday says:
"A special was attached to the Greenville train yesterday carrying about fifty good factory operatives from North Carolina to Pelzer, where they will begin work in the new electric mill at that place. Others new electric mill at that place. Others are expected through to day for the same place The new mill will be the largest in the South, and 3 000 people will be employed when the full capacity for work is started."

teemed by all of his friends and acquaintances, who deeply sympathize with the loved ones who are left to cherish his memory. He joined the Presbyterian Church in this city about five years ago, and was a devoted and consistent member. The remains were brought to Anderson Monday afternoon and on yesterday, at 1.30 o'clock, were laid to rest in the Presbyterian Churchyard, the funeral services byterian Churchyard, the funeral services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. N. H. Summerel, assisted by Rev. Dr. Frierson.

We have had the pleasure of inspecting the beautiful Holiday goods being dis-played at the Book Store of G. W. Fant & Sin. They have brought on the mos complete assortment of novelties in their line ever seen in Anderson, and we ven ture the prices are all right. Their stock consists of everything that pertains to a first-class Book Store, and have added great many fancy novelties this season
We have not time or space to numerate the many beautiful gifts for old and young, but would advise all to go and see for themselves. You will be well pleased and entertained if you visit Fant & Son's Book Store, and you will be sure to get the worth of your money. Their goods are nicely displayed and now is the time to make your purchases before the rush mas Eve night be will give a free show at his store, and all of our readers are invited to come and see it. You will enjoy it.

If you contemplate giving a Christmas present you will act wisely in selecting something that is useful. In his new ad vertisement this week U. E Seybt gives that advice, and calls attention to what he has in stock for that purpose Read what he says and do not fail to give him a call at once.

The Columbia correspondent of the Sunday News, writing under date of 7th inst., says: "Miss Pearl Fouche, a lovable and bright young lady from Abbeville County, died to day at the Columbia Hospital. Miss Fouche was a student at the Williamston Female College and came here for the Fair. While in Columbia she became sick and was taken to the hospital. It was soon found that she had appendicitie, and two operations were performed. The trouble had gone so far that no good could be ble had gone so far that no good could be done for her. It is said that the inflamma tion was brought about by a seed from fruit cake lodging in the dangerous appendix." Miss Fouche was a granddaughter of Mr. W. L Prices, of Williamston, with whom she had lived since the death of her mother several years ago. The remains were carried to Williamston and buried D C. Brown & Bro have accepted the agency for the exclusive control in this city of Merrick's spool cotton. Tuey claim this thread to be as good as the best on the market, and are offering it at one half the former price of first-class sewing thread. Their new advertisement will apply the state of the control of the apply regretted by a wide circle of friends.

Were carried to W liamston and buried Sunday afternoon. She was a beautiful and accomplished young lady, and her death is deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends.

The Lowndesville correspondent of the Abbeville Press and Banner says: "Mr.

Ellis Huckabee and this writer took a trip by the dirt road to Anderson C H. Wed nesday. We found some cotton and corn still to be gathered. Although the road had been well worked, yet when we reached six miles of that place we discovered a very marked improvement in the road, attributable to its having been worked by a road machine. The road is in splended fix We spent a pert of a day and a night at the very pleasant home of Mr. W. B. Magruder. We are always glad to be there, as we feel free, easy and at home The stores were closed the next morning, and the streets were with but few exceping and Alf Taylor's lecture.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church at Dean will serve an oyster supper on Friday evening. 20th inst, for the benefit of the organ fund Everybody is invited to attend and patronize the ladies, who will give a fine supper for a small sum of money We thank the committee for a special invitation to be present.

Cards have been issued to morrow with but few excep with but few excep with the deserted, which was in direct contrast with the deserted, which was in direct contrast.

The "Standard" Delineator has become so familiar that it hardly seems necessary to do more than indicate the good things to be found in its pages. It celebrates the New Year by an unusually interesting number. The colored plates are a fine example of what can be done in lithography when directed by a real artist. Stories abound, and brightly written pages are devoted to dancing, fure, fancy work, home making, and New Year customs the world over: chatty editorials amuse the world over; chatty editorials amuse the readers of "Among Ourselves" and Flori culture is, as usual, treated by the master hand of Mr. Eben Rexford. There arhand of Mr. Eben Rexford. There arpsges of fancy work for little fingers, and others for big ones, including a further number on leather work. Dainty calen dars are described and illustrated and in the pages on "How to be Beautiful" the hygiene of the skin is discussed. In addition there are some fifty pages of new designs for my lady's wardrobe, and excellent articles on millinery and cookery.

Mrs. Victoria Barton, wife of Mr James E. Barton, died suddenly at her home in the northern suburbs of the city last Fri day morning. She was in her usual good health when she retired the preceding night, and next morning at 5 o'clock she was prematurely confined, which cause-her death in a very short time. despite all that medical skill could do. Mrs. Barton was the eldest daughter of Mr. John Cat lett, of this city, and was about 38 years o age. She was a most estimable and indusage, She was a most estimable and indus-trious woman, and was held in high es-teem by her friends and acquaintances In her girlhood she joined the Baptis Church and throughout her life was a most consistent and devoted member. About Mr. Barton, and ten children were born nto them, seven of whom -two giria five boy-survive her, the youngest being three years of age. She was a model wif-and mother, and there is no one that carfill her place on this earth. Her death is therefore very sad, and the heart-broke-husband and little children have many sympathizers in their sore bereavement On Saturday afternoon the funeral services were held in the Baptist Church, being conducted by the pastor, Rav. O. L Mar tin, after which the remains were interred in Silver Brook Cemetery.

The Conference.

The South Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, concluded its work at Rock Hill Monday night. The session was a most delightful one, and everybody was charmed with Bishon Galloway. The Conference meets next year at Abbeville. The following are the appointments for the Greenville District the ensuing year: the Greenville District the ensuing year:

T. J. Clyde, Presiding Elder. Greenville, Buncombe Street, J. W. Kilgo; St. Paul, J. E. Grier; Greenville City, O. L. Durant; Reidville, D. Z. Dantzler, Greer's, T. P. Phillips; North Greenville, F. H. Suler; Fountain Inn, J. W. Shell; Williamston, J. B. Earle; Anderson Station and City Mission, G. P. Watson, W. B. Verdier; Anderson Circuit, J. Attaway, A. W. Attaway supernumerary; South Anderson, W. T. Duncan; Townville, W. A. Kelley; Pendleton, S. H. Zimmerman; Pickens, Wm. Harden; Seneca and Walhalla, J. L. Daniel; Westminster, M. H. Poozer; Walhalla Circuit, J. L. Mullinix; North Pickens, L. L. Inabinet; Easley and Bethesda, L. L. Inabinet; Easley and Bethesda J. F. Anderson; Piedmont, A. T. Dun lap; Williamston Female College, S.
Lander, President; Editor of Southern Christian Advocate, John O. Willson;
Sunday School Editor, W. D. Kirkland;
A-sistant Sunday School Editor, L. F.
Beattr

The Graded School. All children between six and thirteen, who wish to enter the Graded School and who have not been examined, will lease meet me at the Ayer House nex Wednesday, Dec. 18th, at 9 o'clock. Those between 13 and 21 on Thursday at the same hour.

Respectfully,
G. W. Moncriff, Supt.

A Cheap Way to Atlanta.

Look up your old correspondence and send the Contederate stamps you find on original envelopes to us. Prompt cash re mittances made Correspondence solicited. Reference, Commercial Bank Augusta Eagle Stamp Co., Augusta, G. P. O. Box 201

— The taste nerves are 2,000 times more sensitive to quinine than they are to sugar. For low prices and fair dealing, try H. G. Johnson & Son.

FOR SALE OR RENT-A house and lot on McDuffie street, near the square. Cal on R. A. Jackson.

A job lot of Harness to arrive in a few days. Call and secure a bargain.
H. G. Johnson & Son. The old reliable Nimrod Axe is still in the lead Buy a Nimrod Axe and you will get the best For sale only by Sullivan Hardware Co. Don't forget when you want a nice set o

Harness or Buggy to call on H G. John son & Son. When you want your harness repaired, bring them to H. G. Johnson & Son and get good honest work, done by Uncle Joe

Just received a car of Studehaker WAROUS. The Oliver Chilled Plows do the best of evidence as to the superiority of the Plows. The genuine Oliver Chilled Plows for sale only by Sullivan Hardware Co.

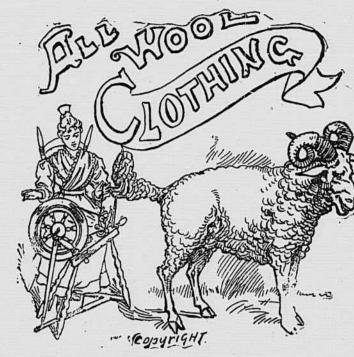

Just received another car Studebaker J. S. Fowler. We are making some of the most interesting prices ever heard of on Bailey Pat ent Planes. Call and get our figures Sullivan Hardware Co. Call at the Auderson Music House and see the latest design in the Ivers & Pond-the handsomest ever brought to this market-a perfect Piano in all its details They also keep on hand a full line of Carriages, Buggies and Machines. The genuine Starkes' Dixie Plows at $1.25. For sale by Sullivan Hardware Co. NOTICE. - To those indebted to me

GENUINE GOODS! WELL MADE GARMENTS! HONEST VALUES!

> THE BEST CHEAPEST!

IF ONCE, ALWAYS A CUSTOMER!

WE have nothing else but Clothing of genuine fabrics on our well-stocked shelves and counters. All our Suits and Overcoats are pure Wool and NO shoddy.

Customers make sure of getting from us Garments warm and healthful, and such as wear perfectly well. Our Clothing has all the wear in it that a genuine wool fabric can give. Our Suits and Overcoats are---

"EXACT PICTURES OF FASHION!"

What is more, we can fit you as well as the Merchant Tailor, and at much lower price. The difference between our price and our friend, the Merchant Tailor, represents the amount thrown away by those who fail to take advantage of this golden opportunity.

Clothiers, Hatters, Furnishers.

IT is not that we wish to boast when we speak of the fine trade that we have had this season, but we think it the best way to prove to the Trading Public that we are fixed right, so far as Quality, Quantity, Styles and Prices are concerned. We thought at the commencement of the season that we would have a good trade, for we had confidence in our purchases, and felt that we were prepared to succeed.

For the next four weeks we must surpass anything we have ever done heretofore. Our Stock has been well filled in, and we have now on hand more Goods than usual at this season. We have been wonderfully lucky in our recent purchases, and intend giving our customers the benefit of same.

We have made reductions on certain lots of Dress Goods, and they will go very low. We will not carry them over, and begin in time so as to let them go. We have some Bargains in this department, and it will pay you to visit it.

In the line of Cotton Dress Goods we have been filled up to the rafters time and again, and have them coming in every week: Outings, Crepons, Cheviots and Suitings.

We have opened up another lot of those good, honest, Southern-made Blankets. It will make any one feel proud to see such honest goods at following prices: 10.4 at $4.00. 11-4 at $5.00. 12-4 at $6.00. Besides these we have Blankets down to the lowest priced goods.

This has been a fine season for us on Ladies' Undervests, and we have just received a new lot, and think we can supply

CAPES AND JACKETS.

We want to say something here which will make every Lady that comes to town call and see us. We thought we had enough to do us, but had overlooked the fact that we had accepted a big lot which was offered to us very cheap. Our past experience teaches us that we must sell Capes and Jackets with a rush if we expect to get rid of them before the season closes. It will not cost you anything to look at them.

And now for the home-stretch, and to make this the biggest month's business in our history.

Yours truly,

F. JONES & CO.

TO BUYERS OF -

A Word of Adv

In this practical age recipients of PRESENTS appreciate most something USEFUL.

class of Presents. Come and see what he has in Presents

The Wife, The Daughter, The Mother,

The Sister,

Grandmother,

The Best The Husba The Son, The Fathe The Broth

Uncles, Aunts, Cousins,

And all the balance of the family, and any others vou wish to make a Present.

ZEPHERS, CROCHET COTTON. TINSELS. SILKS, WOOLS, OUTLINE LINENS.

And other Art Novelties is especially large and

Don't Fail to see Seybt's line Bl

To Our Fried

IT gives us pleasure once again to pres fore you, and say that our Mr. Lesser has Northern market, having purchased a " consisting in part of Dress Goods---wool nels, Ginghams, Calico, Bleaching, Sea Isla Jeans, Cassimere, Water Proof, Cloaks, Cape

We are showing this season a mammi Having purchased before the tremendous to offer you Shoes, and good Shoes, too, We know this is not business, but rather

In passing through our large and space see great piles of Clothing for Men and Bo of Men's Hats. At another glance you shelves of Millinery, Feathers, and all kind Ladies' heads.

end we promise and obligate ourselves to sonable Goods at a very small profit.

Remember our place of business.

LESSER d

Is strictly up to date on this

The Best Gents,

Grandfathe

PATRON

thing pertaining to a first-class Dry Goods St harsh words we are ready to yield.

Now, friends, all we are working for

You are respectfully invited to call,

UNDER MASONIC